Yale alumni, family and friends travel with Yale to over 40 countries each year seeing the most beautiful and photogenic sites in the world. We have collected thousands of photographs of people and places from travelers over the years. Now, we would like to recognize the best photos of 2015 and share them with the Yale alumni community. In 2014, over 240 fabulous photos from all over the world were submitted to the contest.

Enter photos from any official Yale Educational Travel, Yale Alumni Schools Ambassadors, Yale Alumni Service Corps, or Yale Global Alumni Leadership Exchange organized trip and be eligible to win a Grand Prize. In 2015 the Grand Prize will be a trip aboard the state of the art mega yacht, Variety Voyager, accommodating just 72 passengers in 36 cabins. The grand prize is a cruise to the Adriatic and Aegean (Athens to Venice): April 23-May 1, 2016. (Prize generously donated by Thomas P. Gohagan & Company).

To be eligible for the contest, entries must be received by October 30, 2015. Please read the contest rules available at www.yaleedtravel.org for details.

Judging:
A Yale team of photographers, led by Michael Marsland, Yale University Photographer, will review all the photos submitted for the contest on a dedicated flickr.com account without identification of the photographer. The judges will determine one Grand Prize winner. The judges will also determine a first and second prize winner in each trip category: YET, YASA, YGALE and YASC. The judging will take place in November, 2015 and winners will be notified by December 4, 2015.

Prizes:
There will be one Grand Prize winner. In 2015, the Grand Prize winner will receive a complimentary spot on AYA’s travel program, Adriatic to the Aegean: April 23-May 1, 2016. Cruise from Athens through the Corinth Canal and along the stunning Dalmatian Coast to the picture-perfect canals of Venice. Enjoy a custom-designed, seven-night itinerary aboard the exclusively chartered, small ship Voyager. This authentic small ship carries only 72 guests and allows for port calls inaccessible to larger vessels. Visit five countries and six UNESCO World Heritage sites, exploring the influence of the Roman, Greek, Byzantine, Venetian and Slavic civilizations on this comprehensive itinerary featuring ports inaccessible to larger vessels—Hvar, Korčula and Bay of Kotor. Tour the ancient Greek site of Delphi; Corfu's Old Town, rooted in the eight century B.C.; the remarkable archaeological site of Butrint, Albania; Kotor's medieval fortifications and architecture in Montenegro; Dubrovnik's beautifully restored, 15th century walled city; and Split's Roman Diocletian Palace. To further enhance your cruise, enjoy time getting to know local residents, a folk music performance and a specially arranged lecture by an expert on Dubrovnik's restoration. The winner may invite a guest to join them on the program in the same room for a discounted price of the applicable program rate. The trip is not transferrable. (If, due to political circumstances, the trip is cancelled, we will endeavor to offer a substitute however we cannot guarantee availability of an equivalent prize.)

In each of four categories, Yale Educational Travel, YGALE, YASA and YASC, the first prize is a $100 Longitude Book Gift Certificate. The second prize in each category is a $50 Longitude Book Gift Certificate. Winners will need to sign a Declaration of Eligibility and Publicity/Liability release. Each winner must sign the waiver and return it promptly to photocontest@aya.yale.edu in order to collect the prize. Each winner is also solely responsible for complying with all applicable laws and for bearing any personal income or other taxes or costs relating to any prize. The winning photos will be posted with the list of winners on the Yale Educational Travel website www.yaleedtravel.org by December 15, 2015.
